

Building Successful K-12 to Community College Pathways in a Rural Community

Victor Torres, Associate Dean of Workforce Development and Non-Traditional Instruction and Interim Vice President of Student Services and Equity

David Drury, Retired Vice President of Instruction, Imperial Valley College

What we're going to discuss today

- I. Changing mindsets around K12 partnerships
- II. Effective strategies for building successful K12 - community college partnerships
- III. Impacts of K12 partnerships on college access

Changing mindsets around K12 partnerships

Strategies for changing mindsets

- IVC hosted conferences, professional development and K12 engagement days to help K12 partners learn about all IVC CTE and transfer programs and new initiatives, which helped change perceptions of IVC.
- Instituted data sharing agreements between IVC and K12 districts
- Fostered collaboration between outreach partners
- Eradicated duplication of services
- Imperial County Superintendents Network
 - President of IVC attends these monthly superintendent meetings
- Middle School and High School Principals Network

Strategies for ensuring strong K12 partnerships

- The Imperial Valley Counselors Roundtable (includes all IVC and K12 counselors) meets quarterly.
- Dual enrollment courses are targeted to the needs of each school.
- High school teacher build college-going activities into the curriculum.
- County-wide events, including Higher Education Week 1 (for seniors) and Week 2 (for juniors)
- Middle School and High School Strong Workforce Consortiums
- Imperial County Partnership for Higher Education

Higher Education Week

- Funded by K12 school districts; organized by K12 districts in partnership by the Imperial County Office of Education, Imperial Valley College, and San Diego State University
- Includes activities and events for students and families; materials are available in English and Spanish
- Parents are invited to attend an in-person or virtual parents night
- Participation by IVC departments: Admissions and Records, Counseling, Financial Aid, Career Education
- Held twice per year (fall for seniors, spring for juniors)
- Outreach to more than 3,000 students each week

Imperial County Partnership for Higher Education

- Countywide collaborative to ensure access and coordination of services and activities to Imperial County K12 schools.
- Comprised of Imperial County College Access Partner Directors
- Meet monthly, coordinate services, track data and work together for continuous improvement
- Collaborate to ensure access to all students and families in Imperial County
- Imperial Valley College is an integral partner, including offices of Financial Aid, Counseling, Career Education, Admissions and Records.

Strong Workforce Program

- Imperial Valley ROP
- Imperial County Office of Education
- Imperial Valley College (Community College)
- All 17 local school districts
 - 15 School Districts with Middle Schools
 - 8 School Districts with High Schools
- Collaborate to form the Strong Workforce Program Consortium with a focus on doing more and better Career Technical Education and ensure smooth transitions for students from middle, to high school and beyond.
- Over $12,000,000 in funding from CCC SWP over the last 4 years.

What are the impacts of these partnerships?

By the time students in the IVC service area graduate high school, they have:

- Applied to IVC (and a four-year college if that was their goal)
- Completed the FAFSA
- Attended a IVC orientation
- Developed an initial educational plan
- Registered for IVC classes in the fall
